WhatsApp Groups Created for Student Communication and Information Sharing by WEC:

Introduction

The Women Empowerment Cell (WEC) has established dedicated WhatsApp groups for students to enhance communication, provide important updates, and promote discussions on women's empowerment, safety, and leadership. These groups serve as a platform for sharing educational resources, event notifications, and support mechanisms for students.

Objectives

The primary objectives of these WhatsApp groups are:

- To create a safe and supportive digital space for students.
- To provide real-time updates on WEC activities, workshops, and initiatives.
- To encourage discussions on women's rights, empowerment, and career opportunities.
- To offer guidance and support regarding safety, legal rights, and well-being.

Group Guidelines

To ensure a positive and constructive environment, students must adhere to the following rules:

- Use the group respectfully and only for relevant discussions.
- No sharing of personal, promotional, or unrelated content.
- Maintain decorum and follow WEC's policies.
- Report any inappropriate behavior to the group admin.

Conclusion

These WhatsApp groups serve as a vital tool for empowering students, fostering communication, and ensuring easy access to important information. The Women Empowerment Cell remains committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and informative platform for all students.
